25X1 5. [] Advised Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, that a request has been made for the listing of OSS agents who worked in [] but that no definition can be given at this time as to the time necessary to fill the request; what the classification of such a list would be; or whether such a list can, in fact, be compiled from records available at this time. Mr. Sourwine indicated he would await our recommendations when more definition was available as to whether he should place the unnamed senator directly in touch with us or whatever course of action might be appropriate at that time. 25X1

25X1 6. [] CI Staff, called and advised that from the information we had given them, they were unable to locate in their files information concerning the two brothers of [] about whom Jay Sourwine had made inquiry. 25X1

25X1 7. [] William Cannon, Bureau of the Budget, called and gave verbal approval to the submission of our report to the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee on the Federal Salary Reform Act. Mr. McCane's letter was handcarried to the Committee.

25X1 8. [] In response to his telephone call of yesterday, I dropped by to see George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, to determine the area of the staff's interest for a briefing. Murphy said they are interested in knowing whether the Soviet Union had developed small nuclear weapons of the type being provided NATO countries and whether or not the Soviets are making these weapons available to bloc countries. I discussed this inquiry with [] OSI, and will endeavor to satisfy the Joint Committee's inquiry without the necessity of an OSI briefing. 25X1 25X1

25X1 9. [] Talked with Dr. Sweig, on Speaker McCormack's staff, in connection with his inquiry about the status of [] I advised Sweig that there did not appear to be a serious personality problem although [] had taken issue with her most recent fitness report. 25X1 I advised Sweig that I was sending him a letter concerning [] status in the surplus personnel program. Sweig could not seem to understand why a woman with her length of service was being dismissed, indicating he felt we should find another position for her. I advised him that while we attempted to reassign people in this program, this was not always possible. Sweig then said we should find her a job outside the Agency. I told him we were offering as much assistance as possible in this regard and told him I planned to call her and suggest she discuss her case further with our personnel office. [] have been consulted on this. 25X1
